1843 Declarations of Interest

None

1844. Apologies for Absence

Caroline Mackrill - (CM)
Cllr Neil Hardgreaves – (NH)

1845. Minutes of the previous meeting held on 7th May 2026 and Annual Council Meetings on 7th May 2026 and 8th May 2025.

The minutes of the meetings were agreed as true and accurate records and were signed by the Chairman.

1846. Matters arising from the minutes of the meeting on 7th May 2026.

There has been no response from residents to making representation at the presentation of the Pegasi planning application.

1847. Public participation session

A resident would be prepared to make representation at the Pegasi planning application but would require assistance in preparing the response. It is suggested that all residents making representations should have a prior meeting to discuss their responses.

1848. Correspondence

- a. A resident has written to advise that following a recent rain storm there has been an overflow of sewage. Anglia Water has been advised and is dealing. GS has contacted the resident.
- b. A letter has been received from a resident remarking on the speed of vehicles through the village.

1849. Footpaths

Footpath 19 behind the Village Hall is overgrown. The parish clerk will notify Highways.

1850. Planning

There were no planning applications to consider.

District Councillor Emanuel gave a very detailed description of the planning application procedure. For any application over 150 dwellings there will be a 21 day holding period before the application is called in.

1851. Village projects

- Additional posts are required for the Village Green. PB advised that the owner of the Green is waiting for the ground to soften before proceeding.
- GS has been advised that there are some posts left over from the previous purchase.
- There is a request to install posts on the other side of the Green.

1852. Belchams Lane

There is no further update.

1853. Action List

The current Action List had been circulated to councillors. The following amendments to be made;
